Basic Financial Aid Information

Financial Aid is available for those who qualify. Charzanne Beauty College participates in financial aid programs for the benefit of students. Students must meet the eligibility requirements of these programs in order to participate. Charzanne Beauty College administrates its financial aid programs in accordance with prevailing federal and state laws and its own institutional policies. Students are responsible for providing all requested documentation in a timely manner. Failure to do so could jeopardize the student's financial aid eligibility. In order to remain eligible for financial aid, a student must maintain satisfactory academic progress as defined in the school catalog.

Each prospective student who is requesting financial assistance is required to attend a personal interview with the Business Administrator. During this interview, the applicant is required to complete or get the directions for filing a Free Application for Federal Student Aid on the Web. The directions are available from the Admissions and Business Department, and it is used to gather and sort information about a student, which is used to determine an individual's eligibility for financial assistance. All verification documents, which the Financial Aid Officer identifies, must be submitted to the Business office before any student may receive federal aid.

How to Apply

Students who want to apply for federal aid (and state aid, if applicable) must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). This application is available on-line at (<http://fafsa.ed.gov>).

Applications are processed through the Financial Aid Office and all information is confidential. Students must be accepted at Charzanne Beauty College before financial aid applications can be processed.

Federal Pell Grant Program

This grant program is designed to assist needy undergraduate students who desire to continue their education beyond high school. Every student is entitled to apply for a Federal Pell Grant. Eligibility is determined by a standard U.S. Department of Education formula, which uses family size, income and resources to determine need. The actual amount of the award is based upon the cost of attendance, enrollment status, and the amount of money appropriated by Congress to fund the program. The Federal Pell Grant makes it possible to provide a foundation of financial aid to help defray the cost of a postsecondary education. Unlike loans, the Federal Pell Grant does not usually have to be paid back.

Federal Direct Student Loan Program

Like the Pell Grant program, the Federal Direct Student Loan program is administered by the U.S. Department of Education, and is designed to assist those students desiring to continue their education. Eligibility is determined by the Department of Education. Funds granted through the Federal Direct Student Loan program must be repaid, after the student has completed his/her education, or has officially withdrawn from the program.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy

Charzanne Beauty College maintains the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy in the Student Handbook that is available in the Admissions Office during normal business hours, and it is available online to each prospective student prior to enrollment. Within the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy, there is information regarding probation, appeals procedure, and how to regain satisfactory progress.

Return to Title IV

For information regarding Return to Title IV, please consult the student handbook for the school's refund policies. You can obtain a copy of the student handbook online or from the school during normal business hours. The Business Administrator is also available to discuss the Return to Title IV process if requested.

Confidentiality and Access of the Student's Records

In accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of Students (FERPA), the student or parents of dependent minor students have the right to access and review the student's cumulative records. This may be done by written request at a time convenient for both parties. In the case of a student who lives outside of a reasonable driving distance, copies will be sent at $.50 per page plus postage costs. If the review is done at the institution, the institution reserves the right to have a staff person present during the review. The FERPA also insures that records cannot be released without the written consent of the student, or parents or guardians in the event the student is still a dependent minor, except in the following situations:

1. To school officials who have legitimate educational interest in the records.
2. To certain officials of the US Department of Education, of the Comptroller General, and of state or local educational authorities in connection with said supported education programs.
3. Parent of a student under 21 regarding the violation of a law regarding alcohol or drug abuse.
4. To accrediting commission to conduct their functions- judicial order or subpoena – parents of dependent minor students – or appropriate parties in case of a health or safety emergency.

If there is inaccurate information, the student or parents of the dependent minor have the right to request to change the inaccurate information. The school has the right to deny this request. At this time the student, or parents of the dependent minor, may request an internal hearing to challenge the contents. Decisions made at the hearing are final. The school will submit information pursuant to a court ordered subpoena. However, reasonable efforts will be made to notify the student or parent of the dependent student prior to the release of information. This is true except in cases of ex parte which is a subpoena that would require the school to not inform the student or parents of the dependent minor. In case of a health or safety emergency, personally identifiable information may be released to appropriate parties to protect the safety of the student or other individuals.

 Records of the school will be maintained for a minimum period of 3years. ***
